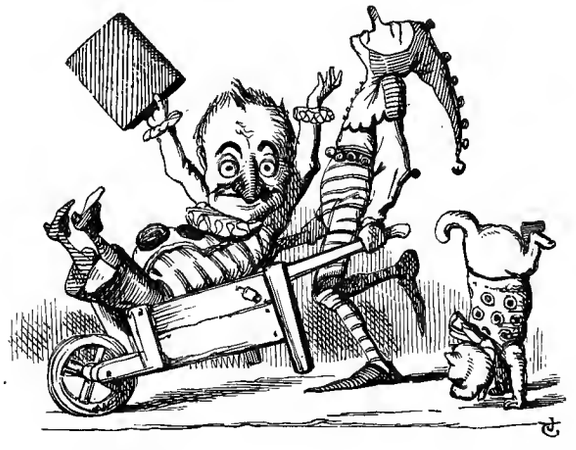
JONATHAN'S PROGRAMME, OR A BIT OF BRAG 100



1

THE PUNCH FOUNTAIN IN FLEET STREET.

 Mr. Disraeli, the late Sir G. C. Lewis, Lord Palmerston, Lord John Russell, and Mr. Bright, assisted at the opening of Mr. Punch's Fountain.—September, 1859.

2

THE BEAR AND THE BEES.—A NEW VERSION OF AN OLD STORY.

 The Russian Bear had commenced the policy which ended in the Crimean War.—July, 1853.

WHAT NICHOLAS HEARD IN THE SHELL.

 England, France, and Turkey declared war with Russia, March 24, 1854, and had obtained several successes when this Cartoon appeared.—June, 1854.

"YOU ARE REQUESTED NOT TO SPEAK TO THE MAN AT THE WHEEL."

 Lord Aberdeen was the Man at the Wheel, or the Head of the Ministry, and was blamed for his tardiness in prosecuting the war with Russia.—August, 1854.

CRUEL TREATMENT OF RUSSIAN PRISONERS IN ENGLAND.

 The "Invalide Russo" had reported that the Russian Prisoners were cruelly treated in England. It was one of many untruths circulated by that venal publication.—October, 1854.

THE BRITISH LION SMELLS A RAT.

 The Peace Conferences were held at Paris, and some of the Conditions of the Treaty were opposed to public feeling in England.—March, 1856.

7

BOMBA'S BIG BROTHER.

EMPEROR OF RUSSIA.—"They shan't take away his playthings, that they shan't."

 Ferdinand, King of Naples (surnamed Bomba, from having threatened to bombard his subjects), being remonstrated with on his bad government and cruelties by England and France, sought the counsel of Russia.—October, 1856.

THE STATE BUTLER GETS UP ANOTHER BOTTLE OF FINE OLD SMOKE.

 Lord Palmerston (the State Butler) was held responsible for the Queen's Speech, which was unsatisfactory to all parties.—December, 1857.

THE BRITISH LION'S VENGEANCE ON THE BENGAL TIGER.

 Some time in March, 1857, the Indian Mutiny, which was to produce such horrors, broke out in the Native Army of India; and the Cartoon is symbolical of the popular feeling in England.—August, 1857.

JUSTICE.

 The Sepoys had committed the horrible massacre at Cawnpore, mercilessly destroying women and children. Some of the Peace party were blatant in England, but the people generally demanded Justice.—September, 1857.

11

THE PATENT SAFETY RAILWAY BUFFER.

 Numerous Railway accidents occurring, Mr. Punch offered his idea of a Patent Railway Buffer to the consideration of the Public.—July, 1857.

THE INDIAN JUGGLE.

(AS PERFORMED AT THE THEATRE ROYAL, WESTMINSTER.)

 There was less earnestness on the subject of the Indian War exhibited in the House of Commons than was demanded by public opinion, and the Ministers (Lords Palmerston and Russell) and the Opposition (Mr. Disraeli) were censured out of doors.—May, 1858.

13

A PROPER CHARGE.

B——P OF L—D—N. "You must not bring your playthings into Church, my little men."

 Several weak-minded clergymen in the Diocese of London, seeking to introduce Romish decorations, such as crosses and candles, and ornamental altars, into their Churches, were very properly reproved by Dr. Tait, Bishop of London.—November 27, 1858.

SOAPEY SAMUEL KISSES THE ROD.

⁂ The Bishop of Oxford (Samuel Wilberforce) had been suspected of a leaning to auricular confession. He was reproved by this cartoon, and abandoned his error.—October, 1858.

15

THE "SILENT HIGHWAY"-MAN.

"YOUR MONEY OR YOUR LIFE."

 The filthy condition of the Thames had been long the fruitful cause of disease and death in the Metropolis. It is to be purified—some day.—July, 1858.

16

BABES IN THE WOOD.

 Austria and France were discussing the subject of Italian liberty, and Victor Emmanuel and the war in Italy followed.—May, 1859.

17

THE LAST PANTOMIME OF THE SEASON.

 Mr. Disraeli introduced a Reform Bill, which was opposed by the Liberal party (Mr. John Bright), and the late Ministry (Lord John Russell and Lord Palmerston).—March, 1859.

NAVAL REFORM.

MR. BULL.—"Now, mind—money is no object,—but I WILL have money's worth."

 The state of the Navy came under the consideration of Parliament, and a vote for a considerable amount was taken by the Government (Sir John Pakington).—February, 1859.

THE QUAKER AND THE BAUBLE.

 "It is the Land which the territorial party represents in Parliament. * * * That is the theory of the Constitution: Blackstone says so. But it is a thing which is not likely to be respected much longer, and it must go, even if involving the destruction of the Constitution."—Mr. Bright in his Penny Organ (The Morning Star).

THE SUPPORTERS OF THE "WORKING MAN."

 Great professions had been made on the hustings by Mr. Bright and the ex-Ministers as to their interest in the Working Man, whose labour and intelligence go far to support the country.—April, 1859.

21

MONSIEUR "WALKER!"

"Ah! Friend Johnny! I close my shop to please you!"

 The Emperor Napoleon, by means of the French press, made professions of his peaceable intentions. Mr. Bull was incredulous.—August, 1859.

22

THE FIRST LESSON.--NOT SO BAD FOR A BEGINNER!

 The Emperor Napoleon testified to his more liberal intention by granting an Amnesty to political offenders.—September, 1859

THE OLD REAL REFORMER.

 Many petitions against the return of new members had been presented, and Lord Brougham declared—"There was no stopping the slave-trade until I made it Felony, and so it will be with election bribery."—Lord Brougham at Bradford.

21

WON'T-EE GO TO CONGRESS?

 The Pope refused to attend or be represented at the Congress for settling the affairs of Italy. The Emperor Napoleon used rather strong language to the Holy Father.—January, 1860.

25

YOUNG 1860.

MR. PUNCH (to the NEW YEAR*).*—"There's the work before you, my boy."

 The session of Parliament, 1860, promised to be a busy one, as the various subjects written upon "the slate" declare.—January, 1860.

DAME COBDEN'S NEW PUPIL.

 Mr. Cobden had several interviews with the Emperor Napoleon, and instructed him in Free Trade principles.—January, 1860.

THE OLD NEWS BOY.

Boy. "Second Edi-ti-on! Reform Bill!"

 Lord John Russell had given notice that he would introduce a new Reform Bill during the coming session.—March, 1860.

THE NEW RUSSELL SIX-POUNDER.

 Lord John Russell's new Reform Bill proposed to reduce the Suffrage to £6, and it was asserted by his opponents that he would in time descend to Household and Universal Suffrage.—March, 1860.

MR. PUNCH SURRENDERS THE SAVOYARDS.

 The French troops retired from Italy, May, 1860, and all Savoyards were invited by France to return to Savoy, then ceded to her by treaty.—1860.

30

AN UP-HILL JOB.

MR. POLICEMAN PUNCH (compassionately).—"Now, Little'un, do you THINK you'll be able to shove that perambulator up them steps?"

 It was thought, generally, that Lord John Russell's Reform Bill would be rejected by both Houses of Parliament.—March, 1860.

31

A GLIMPSE OF THE FUTURE.

(A PROBABLE AND LARGE IMPORTATION OF FOREIGN RAGS.

 The unsettled state of the Continent originated this Cartoon.—April, 1860.

MUMBO JUMBO.

 Tho Pope had threatened Victor Emmanuel with Excommunication, and the Emperor Napoleon was his ally.—April, 1860.

LYNDHURST AS NESTOR REBUKES THE CHIEFS.

 Lord Lyndhurst, in a speech of great power, reproached the Government on the state of the Navy, which he contended was not nearly strong enough.—April 31, 1860.

BRIGHT THE PEACE-MAKER.

 Mr. John Bright, in presenting a petition from the North London Political Union, had spoken very violently against the House of Lords and the Aristocracy generally.—April, 1860.

35

GARIBALDI THE LIBERATOR: OR, THE MODERN PERSEUS.

 Garibaldi was stirring in Italy, as King Bomba the Second had bombarded Palermo.—June, 1860.

LORD J. RUSSELL'S "REFORM" SCRATCHED.

 Two Hundred and Fifty Members having voted against Lord John Russell's New Reform Bill, and numerous amendments appearing on the paper of the House of Commons, Lord John withdrew the Bill.—June, 1860.

RETRIBUTION, OR THE GREENWICH DINNER.

Lord John Russell.—"This can't be whitebait?"

Lord Palmerston.—"Oh, yes! You would make it so late in the season."

 The session had been a very prolonged one. The Ministerial Whitebait Dinner did not take place until late in August, 1860.

NEW ELGIN MARBLES.

ELGIN to EMPEROR.—"Come, knuckle down! No cheating this time!"

 The Emperor of China having refused to pay the indemnity money for the last war, Lord Elgin was ordered to compel payment, and did so.—November, 1860.

ST. GEORGE AND THE CHINESE DRAGON.

⁂ It took three hours to fight,
It cost four hundred men,
To change the Fort Taku
Into the Fort Ta-ken.

40

THE ELDEST SON OF THE CHURCH.

 The Emperor Napoleon, called by the Pope the Eldest Son of the Church, caused the Holy Father much uneasiness by controlling the power of the priesthood in France.—December, 1860.

41

MUTUAL ACCOMMODATION.

MADAME LA BANQUE AND THE OLD LADY OF THREADNEEDLE STREET.

 The Bank of England, by relieving the Bank of France of its surplus silver, afforded great relief to the latter establishment.—December, 1860.

RIGHT LEG IN THE BOOT AT LAST.

GARIBALDI.—"If it won't go on, Sire, try a little more powder."

 Garibaldi, having achieved some of his wonderful successes, urged Victor Emmanuel to increased action for the liberation of Italy.—November, 1860.

A GOOD OFFER.

GARIBALDI.—"Take to this cap, Papa Pius. You will find it more comfortable than your own."

 Garibaldi and the party of action had urged the Pope to surrender his temporalities, and give liberty to Italy.—September, 1860.

THE HERO AND THE SAINT.

 Garibaldi had expressed his contempt for some of the Popish miracles, and his determination to restrain tho power of the priesthood.--September, 1860.

THE TWO SICK MEN.

POPE.—"They have sent you my French doctor, I see. His course of steel hasn't done MY system much good."

 The state of Turkey being very unsatisfactory—the peoplo demanding financial and other reforms—the Emperor Napoleon was said to be offering advice to the Sick Man.—August, 1860.

INJURED INNOCENCE AND HIS BILLET-DOO.

 The Emperor Napoleon having been accused of entertaining designs on Savoy and Nice, disclaimed such intentions. Punch did not believe him.—August, 1860.

47

JOHN BULL GUARDS HIS PUDDING.

 The popular feeling expressed itself by the formation of the Volunteer Corps, and received Mr. Punch's hearty approval.—1859.

48

DIVORCE À VINCULO.

MRS. CAROLINA ASSERTS HER RIGHT TO "LARRUP" HER NIGGER.

 The American civil war was on the eve of commencement, and the slave was thought to be the casus belli.—January, 1861.

JACK'S "NAVY ESTIMATE."

MR. BULL.—"Dear, bless me! what a price I pay for my navy!"

JACK.—"Ax pardon, yer 'onour, tain't along o' we fightin' beggars, it's them THINKIN' beggars."

 The expenditure of the Admiralty offices was discovered to be enormous.—March, 1861.

"BEGGAR MY NEIGHBOUR."

PAM.—"Is not your Majesty tired of this foolish game?"

 The Emperor Napoleon was adding greatly to the French navy, and provoking a corresponding increase on the part of England.—March, 1861.

51

THE LATEST ARRIVAL.

 Italy was constituted a kingdom March 18, 1861—the day before the anniversary of the birthday of Garibaldi.—March, 1861.

52

"STRIKE, BUT HEAR ME."—DON'T QUARREL WITH YOUR BREAD AND BUTTER.

 The London Builders having "struck," Mr. Punch gave them good advice.—April, 1861.

PAPAL ALLOCUTION.—SNUFFING OUT MODERN CIVILISATION.

 The Pope's allocution justified the construction put upon it in the cartoon.—April, 1861.

THE BRITISH SLAVE.

DISINTERESTED DELEGATE.—"Want to go to work, do yer? Goin' to give in, are yer? Not if I know it."

 A person named Potter exercised a bad influence over the distressed workmen on "strike," and was well paid and well fed by the Committee of Delegates.—April, 1861.

MASTER BULL AND HIS DENTIST.

DENTIST.—"Don't cry, my little man! I'm not going to draw any more this time, and there's a penny for you!"

 Mr. Gladstone, the Chancellor of the Exchequer, had re-imposed the Income Tax, less one penny in the pound.—April, 1861.

OUR CABINET MAKER.

Mr. Punch (Overseer of Works).—"Well, Pam, of course I shall keep you on,—but you must stick to Peace Work!"

 The American difficulty being the subject of public consideration, Mr. Punch advocated Neutrality.—May, 1861.

THE AMERICAN DIFFICULTY.

PRESIDENT ABE.—"What a nice WHITE HOUSE this would be, if it were not for the BLACKS!"

 President Lincoln's American difficulty was supposed to have originated with the Slavery question.—May, 1861.

A DERBY OBSTRUCTION.

DIZZY.—"Shan't get out o' the way. I'd like to upset the lot of yer!"

---

*  Mr. Disraeli; during a debate on the Budget, had been very sarcastic on the Ministry (Lord Palmerston, Mr. Gladstone, and Lord John Russell), declaring that they "strained the constitution."—June, 1861.

A DERBY SPILL.

 The Budget was accepted by the House, and Mr. Disraeli discomfited.—June, 1861.

THE STRIKE.—HITTING HIM HARD.

NON-UNIONIST.—"Ah, Bill! I was afraid what YOUR Union would end in."

 "The Strike" reduced many of the Union men to great distress, and ended at last in a compromise of very little value to the workmen.—June, 1861.

NAUGHTY JONATHAN.

"You SHAN'T interfere, Mother—and you ought to be on my side—and it's a great shame—and I don't care—and you SHALL interfere—and I won't have it."

 The American press was very abusive (as usual) of England, now deprecating interference in the quarrel between North and South, and then decrying the indifference of the English people.—July, 1861.

WAYS AND

WHY THEY

 Several letters had appeared in the Times complaining of the prevalent extravagance which rendered

MEANS.

DON'T MARRY.

which rendered it impossible for people of moderate means to marry.—July, 1861.

64

CÆSAR ET IMPERATOR.

"Ah, Massa Napoleon! you al'ays WAS de friend ob freedom—now you AM a man and a broder."

 The Emperor Napoleon had been advocating the cause of liberty—everywhere but in France.—July, 1861

RETIRING INTO PRIVATE LIFE.

 Lord John Russell was created a peer.—July 27, 1861.

HOW THEY WENT TO TAKE CANADA.

 "For the outrage offered in the Queen's Proclamation, the United States will possess itself of Canada."—New York Herald. The fight of Bull's Run occurred immediately after the publication of this bit of "Bunkum."—August, 1861.

"DOTH NOT A MEETING LIKE THIS MAKE AMENDS?"

H—R M—J—Y THE Q—N. "My dear Ireland, how much better you look since my last visit. I am so glad!"

 The favourable reports from Ireland at the time justified the state of affairs represented as above.—August, 1861.

68

THE REAL ITALIAN BRIGAND CHIEF.

 The Brigands—who continued to do the wicked work of Bomba—were said to have had the support of the Vatican.—August, 1861.

NOTICE TO QUIT.

"This won't do, Mrs. Pope!—You are encouraging all sorts of doubtful characters about the place, so THE SOONER YOU GO THE BETTER!"

 When the term for which the French troops were to occupy Rome was near expiring, the Emperor Napoleon remonstrated with the Pope on the encouragement given to the deposed King of Naples and his Brigands.—September, 1861.

THE LAST ACT OF THE ITALIAN DRAMA.

VICTOR.—"Shall we 'ring up' for the last act? The audience are getting very impatient."
LOUIS.—"Not just yet—they must wait till I'm ready."

 The delay in consummating the liberation of Italy was in consequence of the policy of the Emperor Napoleon. Nice and Savoy had not been surrendered.—September, 1861.

A FAMILY QUARREL.

 South Carolina seceded from the Union, December 20, 1861.

CLERICAL ELOCUTION LESSON.

BISHOP PUNCH.—"Now, Sir, let me hear you publish Banns of Marriage."

SWELL CANDIDATE FOR ORDERS.—"I—aw—publ'sh Bannth of Mawidge 'tween Weginald Woberth, Batchla, and——"

BISHOP.—"Stop, Sir, stop. That will never do for us. You had better take Orders—in the commercial line."

 The Bishop of London had declared his intention of not ordaining any candidate for Holy Orders who had not a good delivery, or was not capable of reading the services of the Church in a proper manner.—October, 1861.

THAMES AND HIS TRIBUTARY.

FATHER THAMES.—"Bless you, my Thwaites! bless you! If they had waited for your 'Initiative,' I should have nothing to fear."

 The filthy state of the Thames was again a subject of general complaint, and the scheme for the Embankment of the river received attention.—October, 1861.

KING COTTON BOUND.—THE MODERN PROMETHEUS.

 The complete blockade of Charleston Harbour precluded any further exportation of cotton to England.—November, 1861.

THE GENU-INE OTHELLO.

OTHELLO.—"Keep up your bright swords, for de dew will rust dem. * * * * Both you ob my inclining, and de rest."

LOOK OUT FOR SQUALLS.

JACK BULL.—"You do what's right, my son, or I'll blow you out of the water."

 "The Trent affair" occurred November 8, 1861. Captain Wilkes, of the U. S. Navy, boarded the English ship Trent, and carried the Commissioners Mason and Slidell as prisoners to Fortress Munroe.—December, 1861.

WAITING FOR AN ANSWER.

 A peremptory demand for redress in the case of the Trent was despatched to America. The Cartoon expresses the popular feeling whilst England was "waiting for the answer."—December, 1861.

A LIKELY STORY.

CAPTAIN JONATHAN, F.N.—"Jist look'd in to see if thar's any rebels he-arr."

MR. BULL.—"Oh, indeed!—John! look after the plate-basket, and then feteh a Policeman."

 It was urged by the Federal Government that the Trent affair arose out of a right of search for the rebels of the South.—December, 1861.

COLUMBIA'S FIX.

COLUMBIA.—"Which answer shall I send?"

 The answer was, happily, for peace.

'UP A TREE.''—COLONEL BULL AND THE YANKEE 'COON.

'Coon.—"Air you in arnest, Colonel?"——Colonel Bull.—"I am."
'Coon.—"Don't fire—I'll come down."

⁂ President Lincoln ordered the release of Messrs. Slidell and Mason after short deliberation.—January, 1862.

NAUGHTY JONATHAN.

MRS. BRITANNIA.—"There, John! he says he is very sorry, and that he didn't mean to do it—so you can put this back into the pickle-tub."

 The Apology of America for the "Trent affair" was accepted by Great Britain.—January, 1862.

LAW AND LUNACY;

OR, A GLORIOUS OYSTER SEASON FOR THE LAWYERS.

 A Mr. Wyndham—the heir to a large property in Norfolk—was considered to be insane by his guardians, and the inquiry occupied the law courts nearly a month. The costs of the suit were enormous.—January, 1862.

RETROGRESSION (A VERY SAD PICTURE).

WAR-DANCE OF THE I. O. U. INDIAN.

 The Federals sank several ships laden with stones at the mouth of Charleston Harbour, and otherwise impeded the navigation.—February, 1862.

POLITICAL ARITHMETIC.

MASTER JONATHAN.—"Guess I'm in COMPOUND ADDITION and LONG DIVISION!"
MASTER LOUIS.—"Ah! I'm just beginning REDUCTION."

 Whilst America was commencing a National Debt, in France M. Fould was called in to effect a reduction of the national expenditure.—February, 1862.

85

THE PARLIAMENTARY PYTHON.

 The Python at the Royal Zoological Gardens, Regent's Park, had produced several eggs, and the Ministry had given notice of various Bills to be brought before Parliament.—March, 1862.

THE O'MANNIKIN.

POLICEMAN PAM.—"Don't let him put you out.—I'll quiet him presently."

 The O'Donoghue, M.P. for the County of Tipperary, had sent a challenge to the Secretary of State for Ireland, Sir Robert Peel. Lord Palmerston and Mr. Punch interposed, and prevented any further exhibition of absurdity.—March, 1862.

87

THE GREAT FRENCH MEDIUM.

MEDIUM.—"I can move that elderly party and her chair whenever and wherever I please!"
MISS ITALY.—"Oh! I wish he would!"

 The continuance of the Emperor Napoleon's support of the Pope in retaining his temporalities was considered to be rather problematical.—March, 1862.

88

A DEAD CALM.

EARL RUSSELL.—"It's no use whistling, Pam—spin us a yarn."

 The early part of the Session of 1862 was remarkable for nothing but its inaction.—March, 1862.

CANINE AT THE WESTMINSTER PIT.

 The introduction of Lord Westbury's Bankruptcy Reform Bill was the occasion of some lamentable personalities between the Chancellor and Lord Chelmsford.—March, 1862.

OBERON AND TITANIA.

OBERON (MR. PRESIDENT LINCOLN).—"I do but beg a little NIGGER boy,
To be my henchman."

TITANIA (MISS VIRGINIA). "Set your heart at rest,
The NORTHERN land buys not the child of me."

 The Slave Institution of the South was introduced about this time into the American quarrel.—April, 1862.

THE "BRITISH TAR" OF THE FUTURE.

⁂ This Cartoon refers to the Iron-clad Men-of-war, and suggests an appropriate uniform for those who man them.—April, 1862.

VULCAN ARMING NEPTUNE.

 Six different kinds of iron-plated vessels were in course of construction, and the Enterprise was ordered to be built as a sea-going vessel.—April, 1862.

THE POPISH ORGAN NUISANCE.

PAM to NAP.—"Why don't you make him 'move on?' He disturbs the peace of the entire hotel."

 The persistency of the Emperor Napoleon in retaining the Pope in his false position in Italy has been more than once objected to by Lord Palmerston.—April, 1862.

94

THE MAY-DAY PRESENT.

Mrs. Britannia.—"Oh, thank you, Mr. Bull, very much! I can't think it quite so pretty as the one you gave me eleven years ago."

Mr. Bull.—"Hm! P'rhaps not, dear Madam—but you should see inside!"

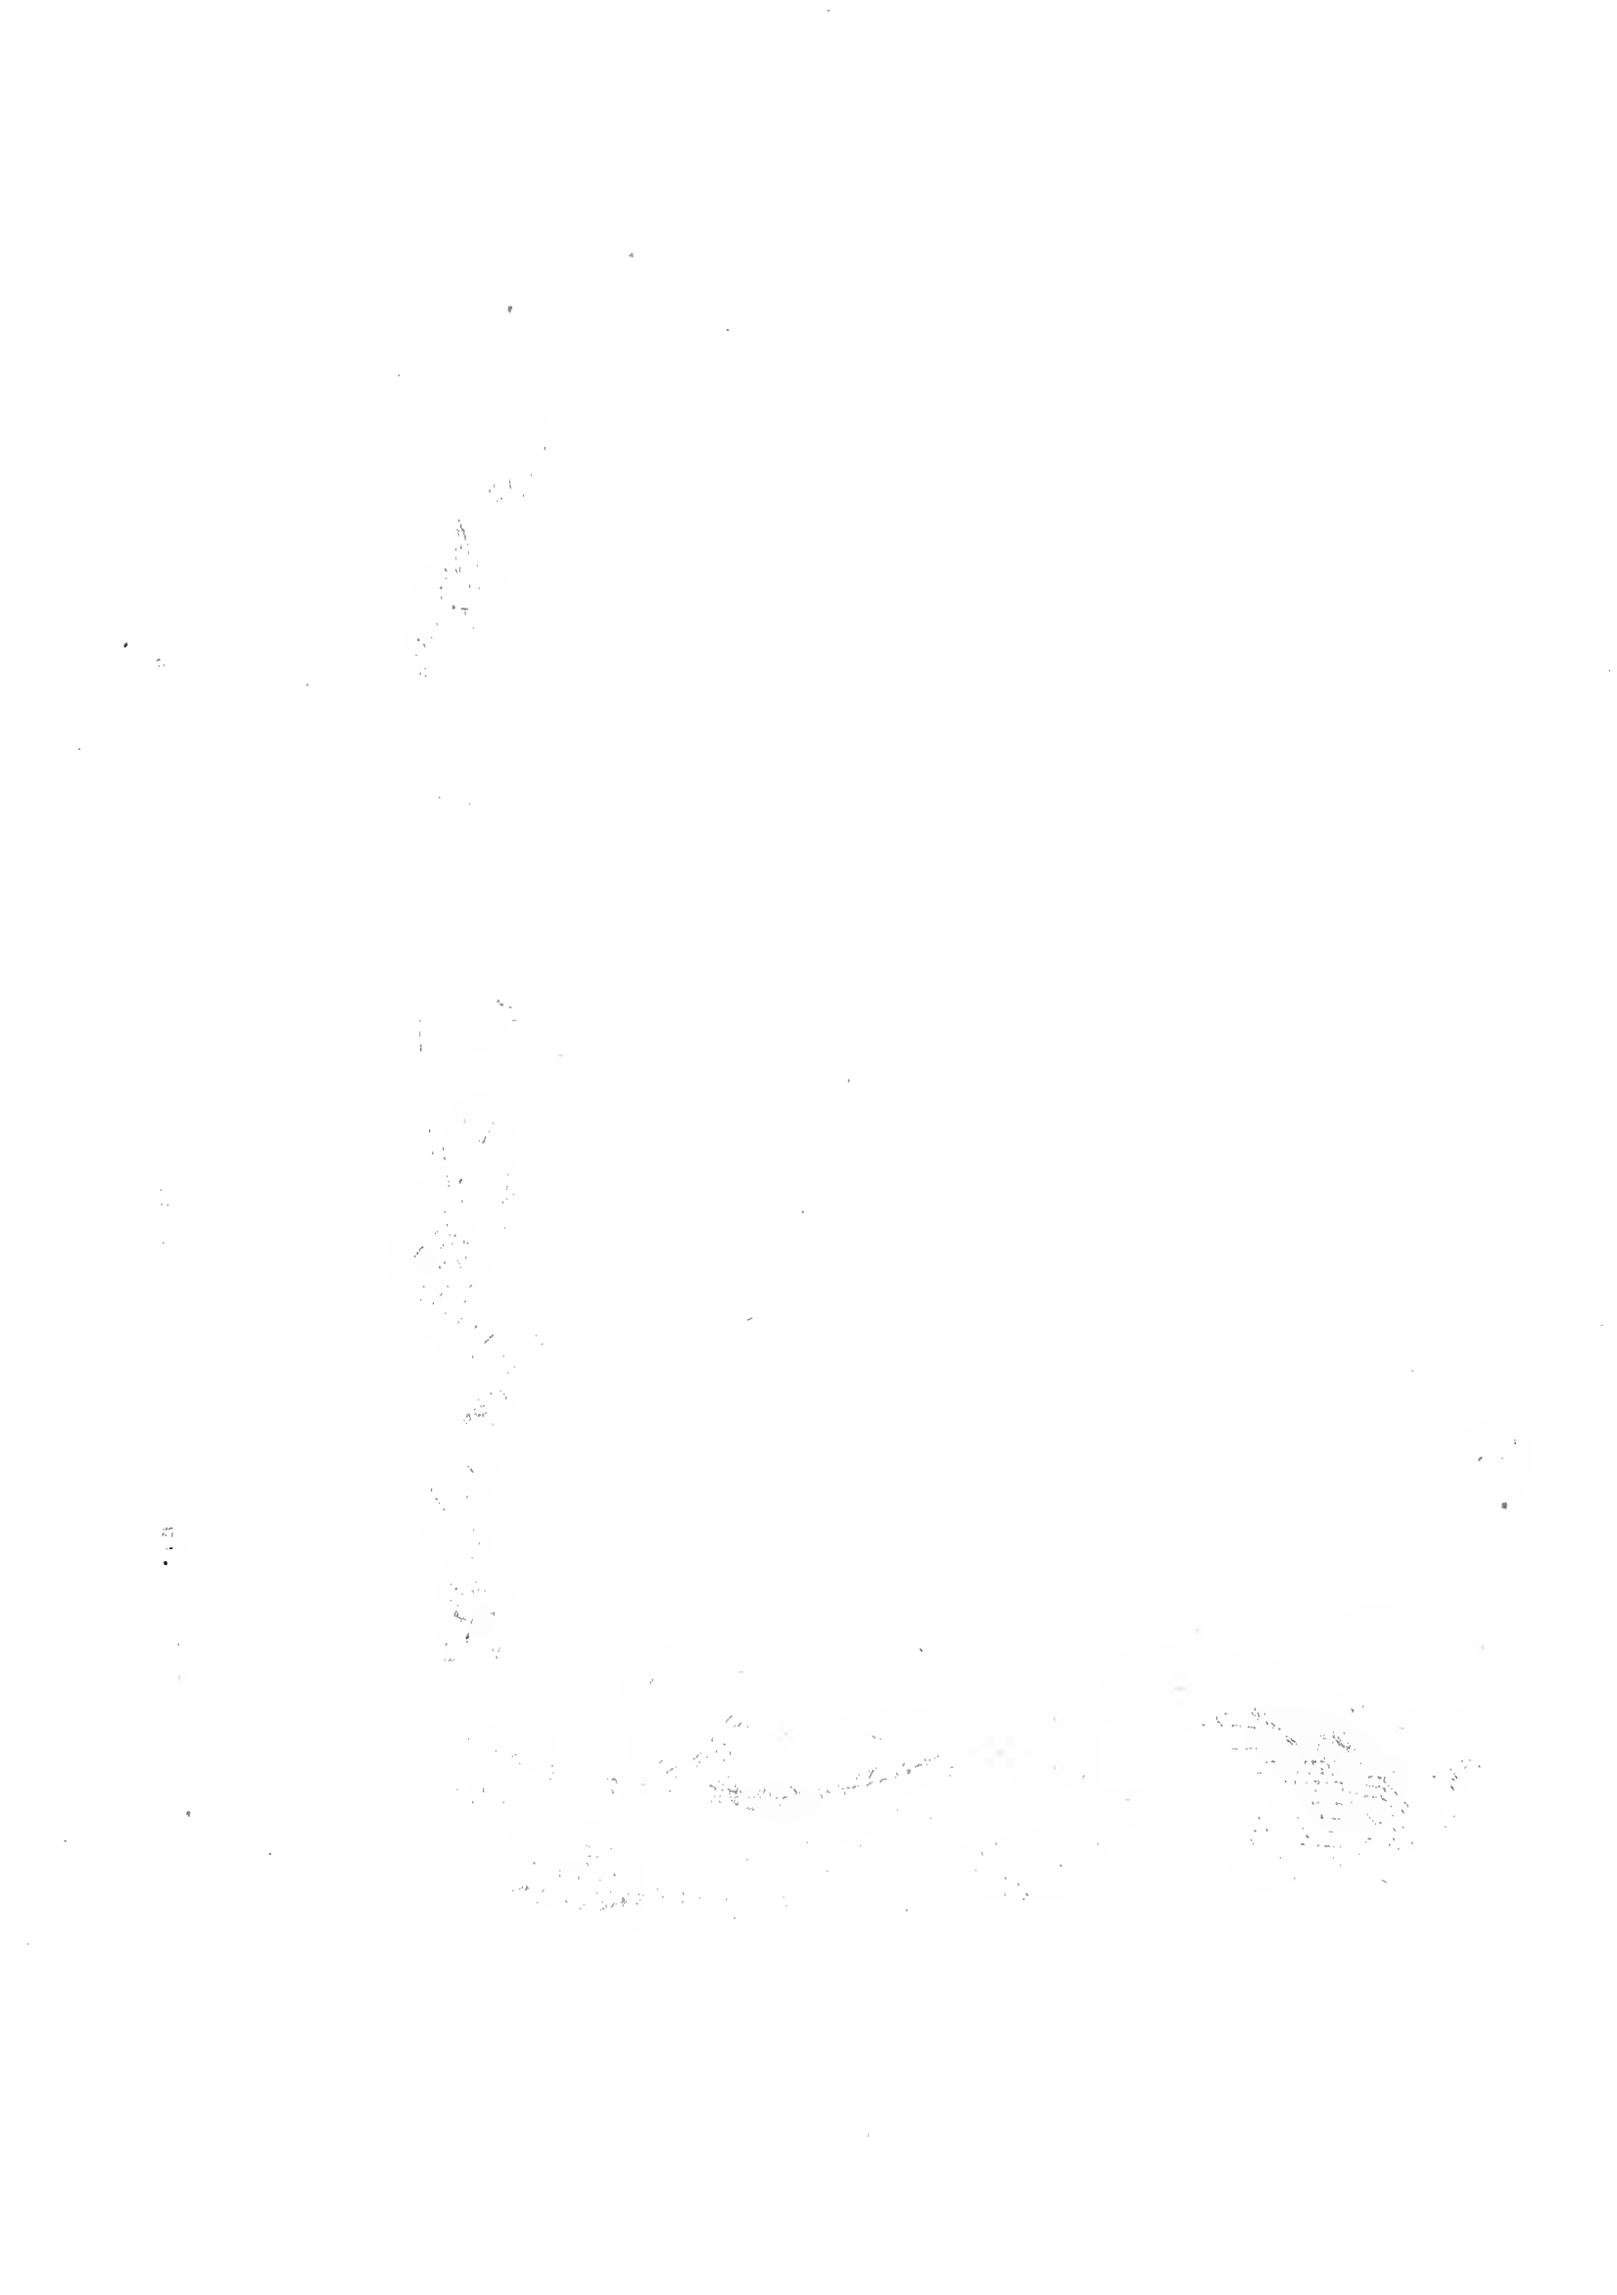
 The International Exhibition at Brompton was opened May 1, 1862, and closed November 15, 1862.



95

PEACE.

 Mr. Punch's design for a colossal statue, which ought to have been placed in the International Exhibition.

AN "INTERNATIONAL" DIFFICULTY (FROM ROME).

LOUIS NAP.—"Hey, M'sieur Bool! What shall I do wis 'im?" MR. BULL.—"Oh, we'll find a corner for him somewhere."

 The occupation of Rome has long been considered a troublesome affair for the Emperor Napoleon, and the Cartoon suggested a mode of removing the cause of the difficulty.—May, 1862.

THE "SENSATION" STRUGGLE IN AMERICA.

, Preparations for the Civil War between South and North America commenced in March, 1861.

DR. BIRCH AND HIS YOUNG FRIENDS.

DR. BIRCH.—"Oh, young gentlemen! I've heard you have some complaints to make."
GENERAL CHORUS OF DISCONTENTS.—"'Twasn't me, Sir! 'Twasn't me, Sir!"

 Several Members of the House of Commons had talked loudly of moving Amendments; but on an intimation from Lord Palmerston that he should dissolve Parliament if they persevered, no more was heard on the subject.—June, 1862.

THE PROFESSOR OF ALLOCUTION.

Scolding Lady.—"Hah! Go along both of yer! Who cares for yer mustachers?"

 The friendly relations between France (Napoleon) and Italy (Victor Emmanuel) were strongly condemned by the Pope of Rome.—June, 1862.

JONATHAN'S PROGRAMME, OR A BIT OF BRAG.

"Tell yer what it is, Louis—if you come meddlin' with any o' your mediation sarce, soon as ever I've whipped the Rebels—and walk'd into Canada—and chaw'd up John Bull—darn'd if I don't put that thar young man in your location!!!" (See New York Papers.)

 The Emperor Napoleon proposed the joint mediation of England and France in the American quarrel. The English Government declined to interfere. Brother Jonathan protested, and abused Napoleon for his friendly suggestion.
